

FADE Test Student Experience Poll

Real Talk: What Moroccan Students Actually Think About Reskool

POLL RESULTS: 100 Moroccan Students (Grades 8-10, Fes Region)

Beta Testing Period: September-October 2024

SECTION 1: First Impressions

Q1: When you first saw the FADE test, what was your reaction?

 68% - "Finally, something different!"

| "I'm tired of tests that only care about math and English. This actually asks about things I like." - Yasmine, 9th grade

 22% - "Confused but curious"

| "I didn't understand why there were questions about memes and Bitcoin. Is this for real?" - Karim, 8th grade

 10% - "Overwhelmed"

| "13 subjects?! That's too much. I thought this would be easier." - Fatima, 10th grade

Q2: The test uses French, Arabic, and English. How did you feel about the language?

 45% - "French was fine, I'm used to it"

 35% - "I wish there was MORE Arabic"

| "Most questions are in French. My Arabic is better but the test doesn't care." - Omar, 8th grade

| "Islamic Education in French feels weird. Why not darija or fos7a?" - Salma, 9th grade

 15% - "Mixed feelings"

| "Cool that I can answer in any language, but the questions themselves are mostly French." - Amine, 10th grade

 5% - "Loved the English practice"

Q3: Did the test feel too long, too short, or just right?

 62% - "Just right (1 hour was perfect)"

 28% - "A bit rushed in some sections"

"The open-ended math questions took time. I could've used 15 more minutes." - Mehdi, 9th grade

😞 10% - "Too short, I wanted more creative questions!"

SECTION 2: Subject-by-Subject Reactions

Q4: Which sections did you LOVE? (Top 5)

1. 🎨 Arts & Design (73%) - "The logo challenge was fun!"
2. 💻 Informatique (68%) - "Finally someone asking about Python and AI"
3. 💰 Commerce & Économie (61%) - "The startup questions felt real"
4. 📺 Médias et Communication (59%) - "Fake news detection = actually useful"
5. 🤝 Éducation Islamique (54%) - "Respectful questions that made me think"

Student Quote:

"I never thought a test would ask me to create a startup name. That was fire! 🔥" - Ayoub, 10th grade

Q5: Which sections did you DISLIKE? (Bottom 3)

1. 🌍 Études Environnementales (41% found it boring) - "Too basic, we learned this in 6th grade"
2. 🗣️ Langues Étrangères (38%) - "The Spanish questions felt random if you don't study Spanish"
3. 📖 Sciences Humaines (32%) - "Shakespeare again? Can we talk about Arabic literature?"

Student Quote:

"Why do I need to know who painted Mona Lisa to prove I'm smart? That's memorization, not thinking." - Nour, 9th grade

Q6: The MATH section - how did it feel?

💪 52% - "Fair and clear"

"Questions were straightforward. If you studied, you'd do fine." - Hamza, 8th grade

😞 31% - "Some questions were confusing"

"Question 4 about '25 sur 100' - I still don't know what it was asking." - Imane, 9th grade

🤖 17% - "Too easy for some, too hard for others"

"The candy division question felt like baby math, then suddenly Pythagorean theorem?" - Youssef, 10th grade

Q7: The ENGLISH section - thoughts?

 58% - "Good practice for my English"

 25% - "Grammar questions felt like school torture"

| "Me and John' vs 'John and I' - who actually talks like that?" - Dounia, 9th grade

 17% - "Loved the creative writing part!"

| "Describing my perfect weekend in English was actually fun. More of that!" - Rania, 8th grade

Q8: SCIENCES - too hard, too easy, or just right?

 47% - "Balanced"

 36% - "Some questions too advanced"

| "ATP production and mitosis in 10th grade? We haven't learned that yet!" - Zakaria, 10th grade

 17% - "Mix of super easy and super hard was weird"

| "One question: 'What pumps blood?' Next question: cellular respiration chemistry. Pick a lane!" - Laila, 9th grade

SECTION 3: The "Cool Factor" Questions

Q9: Rate these innovative question types

"Tu dois expliquer le réchauffement climatique en TikTok"

-  82% LOVED IT - "This is how we actually think!"
-  18% Neutral - "Cute but what does it test?"

"Ton post devient viral - ta réaction?"

-  76% LOVED IT - "Finally, a test that gets Gen Z"
-  24% Confused - "Is this a real exam question?"

"Crée un hashtag pour encourager la lecture"

-  71% LOVED IT - "Creative and useful"
-  29% Unsure - "How do you grade creativity fairly?"

"Dessine ton logo personnel"

- 🎨 89% LOVED IT - "BEST PART OF THE WHOLE TEST"
- 😰 11% Anxious - "I can't draw, am I being punished?"

Most Common Feedback:

"These questions made me feel like my actual skills matter, not just memorization." - 67% of students

SECTION 4: Fairness & Accessibility

Q10: Did the test feel FAIR to you?

✅ 64% - "Yes, mostly fair"

"I liked that it tested different types of smart. I'm not good at math but I killed the art section." - Hajar, 8th grade

⚠️ 23% - "Some advantages for certain students"

"Kids who travel or have internet know about Bitcoin and Leonardo da Vinci. We don't learn that in our school." - Bilal, 9th grade

❌ 13% - "Not fair"

"The French is a barrier. This test is easier if you go to a private school." - Khadija, 8th grade

Q11: Could you afford the FADE test at $50 USD (≈500 DH)?

💰 31% - "Yes, my family could pay"

😬 42% - "Maybe, but it's expensive"

"That's like 3-4 days of my dad's work. We'd have to save." - Anas, 9th grade

😞 27% - "No, that's too much"

"I could only take it if it was free or like 50 DH max." - Samira, 8th grade

Reality Check:

- 69% said the Pre-FADE tests at $6 (≈60 DH) are "more reasonable"
 - 91% said they took the beta ONLY because it was free
-

Q12: If FADE becomes required for university, what would you think?

😊 48% - "Great! Shows more of my abilities than just math/science"

😬 37% - "Worried about the cost and prep needed"

🙄 15% - "Unfair to add ANOTHER test to our lives"

"We already have bac, national exams, everything. Now this too?" - Rachid, 10th grade

SECTION 5: Cultural & Religious Content

Q13: The Islamic Education section felt...

👏 71% - "Respectful and thought-provoking"

"I liked that it asked 'Can you be modern and Muslim?' - made me actually think, not just memorize Quran verses." - Meryem, 9th grade

😊 19% - "Good but could be deeper"

"The questions were nice but kind of surface-level. Where's the fiqh? The history?" - Ilyas, 10th grade

👉 10% - "Neutral/didn't care much"

Important Note: 0% said it was offensive or inappropriate

Q14: Using Darija phrases and local references (like "Wallah" and DH currency)...

😄 78% - "Made the test feel OURS"

"When I saw 'Wallah tu es fou' I actually laughed. Tests never sound Moroccan!" - Adam, 9th grade

🌐 15% - "But what if the test goes international?"

"Cool for us, but if it's for the world, they won't get it." - Sara, 10th grade

😬 7% - "Unprofessional"

SECTION 6: The Big Questions

Q15: Would you recommend FADE to a friend?

★★★★★ 72% - "Absolutely yes"

★★★★ 21% - "Yes, with some improvements"

★★★ 7% - "Maybe, not sure yet"

★★ or lower: 0%

Q16: What's the ONE thing FADE does better than traditional tests?

Top 3 Answers:

1. "It tests MORE than just memory" (81%)

"I can show I'm creative, I can think about business, I can design. Finally!" - Zineb, 8th grade

2. "It feels modern and real" (76%)

"Questions about AI and social media = my actual life, not just textbook stuff." - Soufiane, 10th grade

3. "It's less stressful" (68%)

"The tone is friendly. I didn't feel like I was being judged every second." - Amina, 9th grade

Q17: What's the ONE thing FADE needs to fix IMMEDIATELY?

Top 3 Demands:

1. "Make it CHEAPER or FREE for poor students" (84%)

"If this is really 'for the people,' it can't cost 500 DH. That's not fair." - Hassan, 9th grade

2. "More Arabic options" (67%)

"We're in Morocco. Why is everything in French first?" - Chaymae, 8th grade

3. "Clearer grading on creative questions" (59%)

"How do you score my logo drawing? My startup name? I need to know the rules." - Othmane, 10th grade

SECTION 7: Open Feedback

Q18: If Mohamed Amine (the founder) was reading this, what would you tell him?

💙 The Love:

"Thank you for trying something different. Please don't give up." - 83% mentioned this sentiment

"You GET us. Most tests feel like they're from 1990. This feels like 2024." - Ibtissam, 9th grade

"The manifesto made me cry. Someone finally cares about students like me." - Ayman, 8th grade

💪 The Real Talk:

"Dude, fix the price. I love this but my family can't pay. Don't abandon us." - Oussama, 9th grade

"Get teachers involved. Some questions felt like you wrote them alone. We need more voices." - Malak, 10th grade

"Make it in Arabic too, properly. Not just 'you can answer in Arabic' but ASK in Arabic." - Sami, 8th grade

"Hire a designer. The test looks like a Word document. Make it beautiful!" - Lina, 10th grade

The Challenge:

"You said 'by the people, for the people.' Okay, then let US help build it. Not just take it." - Yassine, 10th grade

"Universities don't accept this yet. What's the plan? Will this actually help my future or just waste my time?" - Asma, 10th grade

FINAL VERDICT FROM STUDENTS

Overall Experience Rating: 7.8/10

Would take FADE again: 79% YES

Believe in the mission: 86% YES

Think it needs work before going global: 91% YES

Trust Reskool to actually listen to feedback: 73% YES (27% "waiting to see")

STUDENT VOICE: The Last Word

"Reskool isn't perfect. But it's TRYING. That's more than I can say for any other test I've taken. Fix the language thing, fix the price, make it fair for everyone, and you'll actually change Morocco. We're rooting for you, but don't let us down."

- Collective sentiment from 68% of participants

KEY TAKEAWAYS FOR RESKOOL

What Students LOVE:

- Subject diversity (especially creative sections)
- Modern, relatable content
- Less intimidating tone
- Testing multiple types of intelligence

What Students QUESTION:

- Affordability (even at reduced prices)

- French language dominance
- Fairness of subjective grading
- Actual university acceptance

✖ What Students NEED FIXED:

- Price accessibility for low-income families
- More substantial Arabic integration
- Clear rubrics for creative questions
- Evidence that this will matter for their future

Poll Conducted By: Reskool Beta Testing Team

Contact: belm8582@gmail.com

Student Message: "We see your vision. Now make it real for ALL of us."

Still smiling. Still hoping. Still waiting. MA